

Kick In The Ass

It is time, my dear friend to fight our battle right now and here.

As the serpent from paradise, wore the face of a deceiver,

Your poison spread through the garden you called love.

For old time's sake, now one last gift for you.

I'll give you a kick in the ass, enjoy it my dear friend,

While you lie I the dirt, I give you a kick in the ass.

I'll give you a kick in the ass, enjoy it my dear friend,

While you lie I the dirt, I give you a kick in the ass.

From one day to the next, you were a different person,

And turned into mister Hyde.

You lied and cheated and got entangled in a sea of lies,

You ripped out my heart and left me in pieces.

For old time's sake, now one last gift for you.

I'll give you a kick in the ass, enjoy it my dear friend,

While you lie I the dirt, I give you a kick in the ass.

I'll give you a kick in the ass, enjoy it my dear friend,

While you lie I the dirt, I give you a kick in the ass.

I'll give you a kick in the ass, enjoy it my dear friend,

While you lie I the dirt, I give you a kick in the ass.

I'll give you a kick in the ass, enjoy it my dear friend,

While you lie I the dirt, I give you a kick in the ass.
