

Knock Out

Let the rain falls down, wash it all away,
it was your biggest mistake,
to underestimate me,

with full power I strike out, let stars beat down on you,
it was your biggest mistake,
to underestimate me

punch after punch, I move towards you, fear you little coward, run to your mama, nowhere will be safe, just don't forget,
dancing like a butterfly, stinging like a bee.
punch after punch, I move towards you,
fear you little coward, run to your mama,
nowhere will be safe, just don't forget,
dancing like a butterfly, stinging like a bee.

Curtains up and let's go, Every day the same day,

Hands clenched into fists, My eyes fix on my target,

Never will I stop,
Never will I lose myself again,
Like a fighting dog,
I won't let go on you.

punch after punch, I move towards you,
fear you little coward, run to your mama,
nowhere will be safe, just don't forget,
dancing like a butterfly, stinging like a bee.
punch after punch, I move towards you,
fear you little coward, run to your mama,
nowhere will be safe, just don't forget,
dancing like a butterfly, stinging like a bee.

punch after punch, I move towards you,
fear you little coward, run to your mama,
nowhere will be safe, just don't forget,
dancing like a butterfly, stinging like a bee.
punch after punch, I move towards you,
fear you little coward, run to your mama,
nowhere will be safe, just don't forget,
dancing like a butterfly, stinging like a bee.
