A thought out of nowhere,
Like a spinning top in the darkness,
Slowly driving me mad.
I scream silently, I am paralyzed,
Glowing eyes fix me, now I belong to him,
No one can hear me.

You grin at me with barred teeth,
You follow me every step,
Lurking in the night waiting,
Caught in my fear,
Darkness covers my soul,
No one can save me.

Breath in, breath out, open your eyes,
Get up and run for your life.

Driven by madness, determines my life,
But I alone can put a stop to him,
Driven by insanity, determines my life,
But I alone can destroy it.
