

Monster

With every heartbeat I approach the end,
I soon fall into oblivion,
Fear crushes my heart,
Drills icy claws deep into it.

The feeling of falling into nothingness,
Unchecked towards the relentless rock,
I could have stopped it, but myself,
Shatters into thousand pieces.

Fear is a Monster that feeds on despair,
Leaves me paralyzed and fights with unfair means,
We've been fighting this battle a long time,
But I must win, before I run out of time.

For others you have always been the clown,
You have hidden fears, and sadness behind a smile,
Time is slowly running out for you,
Please wake up, move, and free yourself.
The feeling of falling into nothingness,
Unchecked toward the relentless rock,
I could have stopped it, but myself,
Shatters into thousand pieces.

Fear is a Monster that feeds on despair,
Leaves me paralyzed and fights with unfair means,
We've been fighting this battle a long time,
But I must win, before I run out of time.

Ooh, before I run out of time, ooh, before I have to die.

Fear is a Monster that feeds on despair,
Leaves me paralyzed and fights with unfair means,
We've been fighting this battle a long time,
But I must win, before I run out of time.

Fear is a Monster that feeds on despair,
Leaves me paralyzed and fights with unfair means,
We've been fighting this battle a long time,
But I must win, before I run out of time.

Fear is a Monster that feeds on despair,
Leaves me paralyzed and fights with unfair means,
We've been fighting this battle a long time,
But I must win, before I run out of time.
