

Run Away

Sitting in my car, talking to you, while music booms out of the speaker, happy laughter over bad jokes when suddenly headlights flash out of nowhere, like an insane person you are chasing us, like a predator hunts its prey for life and death.

Run, run away, hide like a worm, I will destroy you run, run, run away, run, run away, your sad end is approaching, as I crush you, you know you created a monster, so run, run, away

What it's like to regret, all the things you've done your blood drips on my boots, your fragile life in my hand, hot anger flows through me, when I look into your eyes, you will never be forgiven, you will be sacrificed.

Run, run away, hide like a worm, I will destroy you run, run, run away, run, run away, your sad end is approaching, as I crush you, you know you created a monster, so run, run, away

I will destroy you, so run, run, away

Run, run away, hide like a worm, I will destroy you run, run, run away, run, run away, your sad end is approaching, as I crush you, you know you created a monster, so run, run, away
